Press Release

Tree Lighting Ceremony

A Plainfield tradition continues...

Plainfield, NJ December 1st, 2008:

City Hall will ring with holiday festivities on Friday December 5th at 6:00 PM, as once more the city participates in the Annual Tree Lighting Ceremony.

Mayor Sharon Robinson-Briggs, the City of Plainfield and the Division of Parks and Recreation will host this once a year event on the steps of City Hall. As in previous years there will be an exciting line up of special guests and choirs, who will perform during the ceremony.

Additional features will include caroling, a visit from Santa, gifts, complimentary pictures with Santa, a light meal, plus a sweet treat of hot chocolate provided by the Salvation Army of Plainfield.

Last year the Plainfield High School Gospel Choir, The Heritage Show Choir and the Blest1's gave show stopping performances, and the Plainfield High School Band dispelled the cold with energetic numbers. Volunteers dispensed hearty helpings of a hot meal from tents set up in the City Hall parking lot, and a great time was had by everyone who turned out.

All Plainfield residents are invited to come out this year and join in this evening of fun and togetherness. Remember to dress for the weather!
