

CITY OF PLAINFIELD

PRESS RELEASE

Plainfield, NJ: April 7, 2010

Re: “March to the Mailbox” and “National Donate Life Month” Press Conference

FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE

Plainfield, New Jersey – Mayor Sharon Robinson-Briggs and the City of Plainfield is extending an invitation to all residents to join in the “March to the Mailbox” as part of the 2010 Census operation. This event will be held on Friday, April 9, 2010 from 11:30 a.m. The “March to the Mailbox” will convene on the steps of Plainfield City Hall, 515 Watchung Avenue and end at the Plainfield Post Office, 201 Watchung Avenue. This event will remind residents that they still have time to mail back their census surveys.

Mayor Sharon Robinson-Briggs, is encouraging all residents to stand and be counted in this most critical census reporting. The City of Plainfield would benefit immensely in the distribution of federal funds that can be used for schools, hospitals, new roads and services such as job training centers.

Additionally, in Support of Organ & Tissue Donation, Mayor Sharon Robinson-Briggs and the City of Plainfield, New Jersey Sharing Network, and the New Jersey League of Municipalities will jointly hold a press conference on Monday, April 12, 2010 at 10:00 a.m. in the Plainfield City Hall Library to kick off “National Donate Life Month”

The purpose of this press conference is to encourage residents to register to become organ & tissue donors and express the importance of saving lives. This is in acknowledgement of April being Donate Life Month.
